

SOLUGENIX CORPORATION PROFESSIONAL STAFFING SERVICES

The Right Technology and Business Processes Start with the Right IT Talent

Every member of your IT team must be a skilled IT specialist. Conversely, they must also have a broad generalist's understanding of the enterprise IT landscape to be effective in a changing and complex business environment.

The Professional Staffing Services of Solugenix Corporation are designed to partner with you in building that quality IT team. We provide the best IT talent with specialized skills, industry-specific expertise, and grounding in ITSM/ITIL so that they fit your needs today and tomorrow.

The superior Professional Staffing Services Partner:

- At Solugenix, we focus on ITSM every day of every year
- We're Service Management pioneers with a long and successful track record with some of the biggest global brands like Johnson & Johnson, CIT Group, Sony, Herbalife and others
- Nearly five decades in Service Management are built on constant improvement of our methodology, training, and infrastructure to meet the changing needs of your business
- Our talent reach enables us to provide IT talent with the broadest capabilities and depth of experience to help you align IT and business goals in ways that help you grow and function at the highest level

Finding the Best Talent Starts with the Right Methodology

Time, capital and talent are your most valued business investment resources for stability and growth. That's why Solugenix:

- Engages a rigorously tested and proven recruitment methodology for finding the right talent in the shortest possible time
- Provides an assigned Relationship Manager to facilitate the partnership and define the specific profile of the talent that you need for your team and circumstances
- Provides the highest quality professionals rather than quantity so you choose among only the best qualified candidates

To ensure business process continuity, our IT candidates have the capabilities and attitude to hit the ground running. We do this by training our people in consulting best practices so that they have the communication and interpersonal skills to bridge the gap between business and technology. This positions them in helping you to align business and IT goals.

These attributes are verified via our recruiting methodology that combines stringent technical screening with HR best practices to produce the ideal candidate match for your requisitions.

The Benefits of Partnering with Solugenix Professional Staffing Services Include:

- The right staffing models to fit your needs including Contract (short and long-term) Contract to Hire, and Direct Hire
- A national reach to find the best candidates
- Pre-qualified candidates with the right technical and interpersonal skills to fit the company's needs and culture
- Customized analysis and scoring of each candidate across multiple dimensions
- Dedicated Relationship Manager engagement for post-hire progress monitoring
- Extensive database of many of the best ServiceNow Platform Experts
